What Not To Wear

Trinny and Susanna are probably a bit out of most conference budgets - but we have the next best thing.

Girls loves fashion, so combine fashion tips, a few laughs and great company - and you have the perfect ladies event.

Compere and TV presenter, Leigh Muirhead, and fashion stylist Susie McWatt-Forbes offer an fun, informative event with a difference.

How to look slimmer, taller and rediscovering the waist you thought you'd never see again are only some of the fashion tips they'll demonstrate on the ladies.

We're searching for a new team member

Want to join the Onstage team? Or perhaps you know someone who's energetic, reliable, organised, responsible, shows initiative and wants to work in a fun, small team environment. Oh - and attention to detail is critical.

We're looking for an experienced administrator / receptionist who's keen for a long term permanent part-time position of around 30 hours per week. A typical day would consist of:

- General reception and administrative duties
- Preparation of contracts and invoices (using MYOB) and daily reporting
- Data entry, up-keep of office databases and some basic account keeping
- Liaison with clients and performers
- Assisting the sales team as necessary

Please email resumes can be emailed to team@onstage.com.au

Bravo!

To Lexus of Brisbane and Chi Chi Marketing for creating one of the Top 5 Queensland Events for 2009. The Courier Mail judged their Melbourne Cup party at Cloudland as one of the most outstanding events of the year. Entertainment (booked by Onstage, of course) was a key ingredient in the success of the day with Beven Addinsall wowing guests with his performance. See more on Beven - just click here.

Bugger!

Now this is where we'll put something disappointing, disastrous or downright dodgy, but why would we start off a sparkling new year with anything so negative?? Although, next newsletter we might not be so coy. So if you have any juicy gossip you'd like us to include in future editions, be sure to let us know.
